Integrated Outcome Value Reporting Framework

Accountability Axiom Inc. is pleased to announce it is developing a general purpose reporting framework to assist stakeholders (including citizens) understand the value provided by public sector organizations.: Integrated Outcome Value Reporting Framework (the Framework).

Integrated Outcome Value Reports will be prepared under the Framework. The Framework will be based on the principles of Relevance, Reliability, and Reasonable Cost.

Reporting within the Framework includes the costs, as well as financial and non-financial value of the outcomes of significant programs and services funded or delivered by public sector organizations.

Reporting within the Framework ascribes to the attributes of organizational Credibility, Trust, and Value.

The Framework will include standardized reporting principles.
